Her latest book, The Violets of March, is a beautifully written and deeply moving story about the power of love and the importance of family.

The story follows the lives of three generations of women, all of whom are connected by a love of flowers. The matriarch of the family, Evelyn, is a gifted gardener who finds solace in her flowers after the death of her husband. Her daughter, Cecelia, is a talented florist who dreams of opening her own shop. And her granddaughter, Lily, is a young woman who is struggling to find her place in the world.

As the story unfolds, we learn about the challenges and triumphs that each of these women faces. We see them fall in love, lose love, and find love again. We see them struggle with infertility, adoption, and the death of loved ones. But through it all, they never give up on their dreams.

The Violets of March is a story that will make you laugh, cry, and everything in between. It is a story about the power of love, the importance of family, and the resilience of the human spirit.

If you are looking for a heart warming story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it, then I highly recommend The Violets of March by Sarah Jio.
