Among them are a young couple honeymooning, a wealthy businessman, a single mother and her child, and a grizzled old sailor. With limited resources and dwindling hope, they must band together to face the unforgiving elements and their own inner demons.

As days turn into weeks, the survivors struggle to survive. They must find food and water, build shelter, and protect themselves from the dangers of the island. Hunger, thirst, and disease take their toll, and tensions rise as the group grapples with their own fears and weaknesses.
