

Quiet Rumours: An Anarcha-Feminist Reader

A Groundbreaking Collection of Essays, Interviews, and Manifestos

Quiet Rumours is a groundbreaking collection of essays, interviews, and manifestos that explores the intersections of anarchism and feminism. This essential reader offers a unique perspective on the history, theory, and practice of anti-authoritarian politics and gender liberation.

Featuring contributions from a diverse range of scholars, activists, and theorists, Quiet Rumours challenges traditional notions of gender, sexuality, and power. The contributors to this volume argue that anarchism and feminism are not only compatible, but that they are mutually reinforcing. Together, these two movements offer a powerful vision of a more just and equitable world.
