John Hope was born in Augusta, Georgia, in 1868. He was the son of a former slave and a white woman. Hope graduated from Brown University in 1888 and went on to earn a doctorate in philosophy from the University of Chicago in 1895. Hope was a prominent educator and civil rights activist. He served as the president of Morehouse College from 1899 to 1906 and as the president of the NAACP from 1909 to 1910.
