Synopsis:

In a world on the brink of chaos, five extraordinary women will risk everything to save their people.

From the acclaimed author of The Bear and the Nightingale comes a captivating new medieval series set in a world on the brink of chaos. In this world, women are both feared and revered, and their magic is both a blessing and a curse.

Five women from different walks of life must come together to save their people from a terrible fate. They are:

- Miriam, a young woman who can see the future
- Veronica, a nun who can heal the sick
- Eleanor, a queen who can control the weather
- Isabella, a warrior who can fight with both sword and magic
- Sophia, a wise woman who knows the secrets of the forest

Together, these five women will face unimaginable challenges and make sacrifices that will change their lives forever. But if they succeed, they will save their people and restore balance to the world.
